SUMMARY OF WORK EXPERIENCE

Jorn Dormans is alumnus at Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam (VU Amsterdam) who did his Master's in Social and Cultural Anthropology. His research followed the discourses and experiences of (cultural) diversity within the VU. After that he continued with a second Master through the Advanced Master Programme in International Development (AMID) at Radboud University in Nijmegen. Jorn has a passion for education and taught for several years both in primary, secondary and special education and is currently focusing on Train the Trainer Approaches in various CIS-projects, but especially during the IDLO-project "Enhancing Democracy and Citizens' Trust in Governance: Adopting a Fair Treatment Approach in Indonesia's Ombudsman Offices" (2018-2019). At CIS his daily activities involve: project management, coordination and project reporting; acquisition and developing project proposals, planning and organising training workshops (including logistics), administration, M&E and policy development.
